

AMENDMENTS TO THE ABSTRACT

Please add the following abstract to the end of the application:

A composite material case and liner is described for use in a perforator for completing wells such as oil, gas and water wells. The materials selected are intended to exhibit stability during prolonged periods at the raised temperatures and pressures present in a well.